

NEWS AND ACTIVITIES OF THE SOCIETY

Colloquium talks

During the period September to December, 1976, the Society held the following colloquium talks :

Dr. Woo Kai Yuen (University of Singapore, Singapore) - An optimal choice problem (October 20).

Professor J. R. Gray (Heriot-Watt University, Edinburgh, Scotland) - Aspects of optimization in insurance models (November 4).

Public lecture

The eighth public lecture of the Society entitled "Operational Research looks to Mathematics" was given by Dr. K. L. Chew of Nanyang University, Singapore (September 30).

MATHEMATICAL ACTIVITIES IN SINGAPORE

A seminar on "1001 applications of graphs" was held by the Mathematics Department of Nanyang University from November 15 - 17, 1976.

SNAS JOURNAL

The recently reconstituted Singapore National Academy of Science will continue to publish the Journal of the Singapore National Academy of Science (SNAS Journal), and its Editorial Committee welcomes contributions of good quality : research papers, review articles and preliminary communications of important new work in any field of science. Further information may be obtained from The Editor, Journal of the Singapore National Academy of Science, Singapore National Academy of Science, 11 Napier Road, Singapore 10.